

Adu A. Antwi

General Director - Securities and Exchange Commission Ghana

Dr. Adu A. Antwi is the Director-General of the Securities and Exchange Commission of Ghana (SEC). He is a chartered accountant and a lawyer by profession. Dr. Antwi holds a BSc. Administration degree and an MBA degree from the University of Ghana and a Doctor of Business Administration degree from PSB Paris School of Business, France.

Until his current appointment, he was the CEO of Finlaw Consult, a firm of financial consultants and investment lawyers, and a partner in A & A Associates, a firm of chartered accountants, both in Ghana. He previously worked as the Director of Corporate Finance & Investment Management at SEC from 1999 to 2003.

Dr. Antwi has previously served as an Adjunct Lecturer at the Ghana School of Law, the Graduate School of the Central University College, Ghana, the Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration, and the National Banking College, Ghana. He has also served as an Instructor for the Ghana Stock Exchange's securities courses and as a Resource Person for the West African Institute for Economic and Financial Management, Nigeria.

He has served on a number of financial market committees in Ghana including the Financial Sector Consultative Committee, the Long Term Savings Committee and the National Bond Market Committee.

Dr. Antwi has special interest in corporate governance and has conducted extensive research into corporate governance issues. He has presented several papers on financial market and investor education in Ghana and abroad and has a number of publications on financial market.