

Ryozo Himino

Vice Commissioner for International Affairs - Financial Services Agency Japan

Mr. Ryozo Himino is Vice Commissioner for International Affairs at Japan's Financial Services Agency (JFSA) and represents the agency at the IOSCO Board and at the Financial Stability Board's Standing Committee on Supervisory and Regulatory Cooperation (SRC), Standing Committee on Standards Implementation (SCSI) and Resolution Steering Group (ReSG). Till July 2015 he had been responsible for the supervision of large banks and insurance companies. He had been Chairman of the Standard Implementation Group of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision until 2012 and had led the Committee's efforts to design and launch a comprehensive Basel III implementation review program. From 2003 to 2006, he was Secretary General of the Basel Committee, helping it finalize Basel II framework. His previous assignments at the JFSA include Deputy Director-General in charge of corporate disclosure, accounting, auditing and governance, Director, Bank Supervision Division I (large banks), and Director, Securities Business Division. His publications include "A Counter-cyclical Basel II" (Risk, March 2009), "Rethinking Banking Supervision" (Risk, March 2012), Aristide Maillol (the French sculptor's biography in Japanese) and Introduction to I-Ching (in Japanese). Mr. Himino graduated from the University of Tokyo (LL.B.) and the Harvard Business School (MBA).