

IOSCO 2018 ANNUAL CONFERENCE PUBLIC PANEL SPEAKER

Budapest, Hungary, 11 May 2018

Gerard FITZPATRICK

Senior Executive Leader, International, Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC)

Ged Fitzpatrick was appointed Senior Executive Leader - International on 1 November 2017, with responsibility for shaping, managing and coordinating ASIC's engagement with, and contribution to, international financial regulation. International provides support to the Commission and other ASIC teams in their international activities, along with cooperation and information sharing with regulatory counterparts and law enforcement agencies.

Ged was previously Senior Executive Leader for Investment Managers and Superannuation where he led the regulation of fund management, custodial services and the non-prudential aspects of superannuation funds. Prior to that he was Senior Executive Leader for Credit, where he was responsible for market intermediaries and non-bank lenders operating under the credit legislation.

Ged is a former Secretary General of the Institutional Money Market Funds Association and International Policy Adviser for the Investment Management Association in London. His previous regulatory roles included markets and international responsibilities at the UK FSA (precursor to the FCA) and banking supervision and international economic analysis at the Bank of England. An Economist by background, Ged earlier held various roles at several Universities in the UK.
